

TelecityGroup

where content meets connectivity

Geoff Donson

Head of Security
TelecityGroup

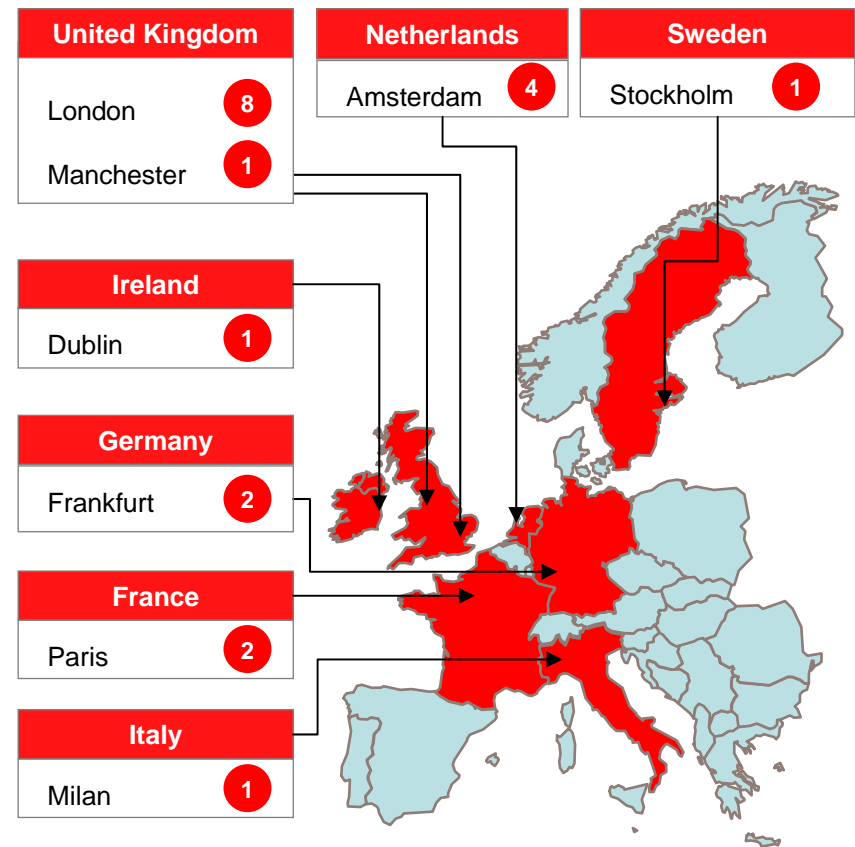

April 2008

Group overview

- Leading pan-European operator of network independent data centres
- Formed by merger of TeleCity and Redbus Interhouse (both formed in 1998)
 - acquisition of Globix in September 2006
- 20 network independent data centres with approx 500,000 sqft fitted-out space
- Offering a range of data centre and related managed services
 - highly flexible and scalable
 - including bandwidth, maintenance and security services
- Over 3000 customer contracts
- Listed on the London Stock Exchange. December 2007 entered FTSE 250

18 + 2^(a) data centres across Europe

Managed Hosting and the Potential threat to the business

Threats

Espionage

Terrorism

Civil unrest – protests

Single issue groups – Animal Rights – Environmental Groups

Organised Crime

Threats

Investigative journalists

Hobbyists – Script Kiddie Hackers

Insider

Aggravated Trespass CJ and PO Act 1994

Collateral Damage

Any other local or specialised threat

All these threats could cause
Physical and, or Electronic impact to Data Centre
Confidentiality, Integrity and Availability

Any Questions?

Geoff Donson
Group Security Manager
TelecityGroup